

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY

THE JCU Media and Communications Speaker Series

presents

ISAAC JULIEN and MARK NASH

Isaac Julien will present and discuss some of his works in a conversation with critic and curator Mark Nash.

ISAAC JULIEN, a key figure in the film and video workshop movement since the early 1980s is a leading international film and video artist, producing works for cinema, tv and art galleries (three of his most well-known films are The Passion of Remembrance, Looking for Langston and Young Soul Rebels). He will be presenting some of his most recent work at JCU. The event will be conducted as a conversation between himself and curator and art/cultural critic MARK NASH. We have the fortune of having Mr. Julien here in Rome as he is a visiting artist at the American Academy during this semester.

Date: Tuesday, Oct. 27, 2015

Time: 6pm

Location: Aula Magna Regina, Guarini Campus

John Cabot University, Via della Lungara, 233 00165 Rome

RSVP at rsvpevents@johncabot.edu

You will be asked to show photo ID at the door.