

Reset DOC
DIALOGUES ON CIVILIZATIONS

INTERNATIONAL
Rome Global Gateway

U.S. Embassy to the Holy See

John Cabot University's Interfaith Initiative, in collaboration with the US Embassy to the Holy See, the University of Notre Dame Keough School, Rome Global Gateway and Contending Modernities initiative, the University of Sussex, Sophia University Institute, Reset DOC and the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as part of their International Conference on Making Democracy Work: Muslim, Catholic and Secular Perspectives in Dialogue on Democracy, Development & Peace, presents:

“Perspectives from Practitioners of Interreligious Dialogue and Collaboration”

Monday, May 30th, 2016 / 7:00pm—10:00pm

Aula Magna Regina, Guarini Campus, John Cabot University

Via della Lungara, 233, Rome

PROGRAM

7:00pm: Welcome by President Franco Pavoncello, John Cabot University

Chair: Michael Driessen, John Cabot University

Speakers:

Fadi Daou, Adyan Foundation

Roberto Catalano, Sophia University Institute

Rashied Omar, University of Notre Dame

Lailatul Fitriyah, Gregorian Pontifical University

Najeeba Sayeed, Claremont School of Theology

8:30pm: Reception to Follow on the Secchia Terrace

A limited amount of seating is available for this event.

Please RSVP to specialprojects@johncabot.edu

Photo ID required to enter.