

AP* Summer Institute for AP* Art History Teachers
Rome, Italy
July 7-11, 2014
Hosted by John Cabot University

New and experienced AP* Art History teachers are invited to Rome, Italy for a unique APSI experience. With Rome as the backdrop, participants will explore local art and architecture, delve into course content, exchange ideas, and develop AP Art History course materials and strategies.

- Explore Rome's art and architecture with JCU Art History Faculty, private tour guides, and AP Art History colleagues
- Examine AP Art History course goals, objectives, content, and resources
- Discuss the development and scoring of the AP Art History exam
- Gain insight into the upcoming redesigned AP Art History Course
- Led by College Board Endorsed Consultant, Margaret Sharkoffmadrid

FEE: $1,800 per participant includes course registration, 6 nights hotel lodging, daily breakfast and lunches, College Board workshop materials, guided walking tours, and guest lectures

FOR INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER, CONTACT:

Danette Anderson, MBA
Director of Marketing and Enrollment Manager
John Cabot University
Via della Lungara 233
00165 Rome
skype: danette_jcu
Tel: +39 06 68191245
danderson@johncabot.edu

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY

An American University in Rome