

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY

Faculty Call for Research Assistant Application

Part I – Outline of research project

Academic field: Management/Economics

Research topic: Female Leadership features, impacts and outcomes at both firm and country-level

Brief description of project and research assistant duties:

Our research aims to examine various dimensions of female leadership, from its impact on performance, innovation, and sustainability to the ways career progression intersects with personal choices, including the decision to become a mother or not, and the changes occurred after these kind of personal choices. In order to do this, we need to gather data from both one-to-one interviews to female CEO and CFO and surveys to various managerial position role hold by women.

Sponsoring professor: Sergio Scicchitano

Professor's e-mail address: sergio.scicchitano@johncabot.edu

Semester of assistantship: Fall 2025

Part II – Mentoring plan

Full description of research assistant's regular duties:

Conduct interviews with the Professor support, Data entry, data analysis, outcome analysis

Description of the work to be completed by the end of the research assistant's 45 hours of work:

Brief reports about the findings that will be generated

Statement addressing how the faculty research will help the student research assistant develop their research skills:

The student will be involved in data collection (interviews and surveys) analysis for business and economics. The student will be involved also in writing drafts of empirical findings.

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY

The research will be developed in co-partnership with the research assistants proposed by Prof. Barbara Sveva Magnanelli