JCU Center for Career Services

My name is Giosuè Prezioso. I graduated from John Cabot University in 2015 with a major in Art History, and a minor in Italian Studies. I consider JCU my 'second home.' Not only did I study here but I found internships and several jobs through JCU's Center for Career Services. Thanks to the Center for Career Services –namely, Professor Antonella Salvatore, Federico Virzo, and the rest of the staff - I have been granted many professional and personal opportunities to grow. I taught English in some of Rome's most prestigious schools and institutions. I was able to volunteer for special projects involving immigrants, children, and even prisoners in Rome. I was hired as the Head Instructor of Public Speaking and Professional English at a Roman high school, the Liceo Dante Alighieri, and as the Head Translator and Voice Casting Manager for "Crazy for Art," a company providing smartphone apps that are digitalizing the cultural heritage of some of Europe's most important cities.

The last two experiences have been dynamic and interesting, since they allow me to combine all my passions and experiences from art history and management to teaching and translation.

Knowing that the cultural contents I work on will be listened to by thousands is thrilling. Teaching at Liceo Dante Alighieri, where I have over 300 students, is an opportunity to improve as a professional, as a speaker, and as a mentor.

Thanks to the Center for Career Services, I have jobs that I love and that provide me with the opportunity to continue my training as a young professional. I would recommend these jobs to those who have a passion for teaching, art, communication skills, and multi-disciplinary fields.
