JCU Center for Career Services

"My name is Aristide Verrelli. I am a senior at John Cabot University majoring in Economics and Finance. I am an intern at FeBAF – The Italian Banking, Insurance and Finance Federation, where I work with the team to create, and organize meetings and events about current economics topics. Thanks to the JCU Center for Career Services, I have got the opportunity to apply what I learned in class. I draft articles in English and Italian for the FeBAF newsletter. I write reports about the latest national and international financial news, and on the webinars and events organized by our team. This opportunity is significantly increasing my knowledge and skills in the field. Working with experts every day is a valuable experience for my personal and professional growth. I would recommend this internship to anyone who wishes to deepen his/her knowledge of Economics and Finance."
