"My name is Giacomo Di Capua. I am a senior at John Cabot University, and I am pursuing a double-degree in International Affairs and Business Administration.

I am currently working as an intern at Comunità Ambiente, an Italian company dedicated to environmental conservation and biodiversity. I collaborate with policy researchers in drafting reports and scouting for best practices in the field.

This internship allows me to use my International Affairs knowledge to draft policy briefs in both Italian and English, and to work alongside experienced professionals on both local and international projects.

I would recommend this experience to anyone who wishes to pursue a career in environmental policy."
