Dear Resident,

Welcome to John Cabot University Housing!

In choosing to study at John Cabot University in Rome, you are opening yourself up to a world of new challenges and opportunities. As a resident in JCU Housing, you will have the rewarding experience of being a part of both a residential and educational community. This wonderful opportunity will allow you to live as an independent adult in the center of this historic city. We hope that you make the most of it and will have precious memories to cherish for years to come!

In order to create and maintain a healthy and safe community, it is important that you read and understand this handbook completely. If you have any questions about the material, please ask for clarification during the Mandatory Housing Workshop that is held during Orientation Week. You may also contact the Office of Housing and Residential Life directly via email at housing@johncabot.edu at any point during the academic semester.

Regardless of whether this is your first international experience or if you are a seasoned traveler, the Housing Office has set up a full support system to help ease your transition to Rome and improve the quality of your educational experience. At the center of this network is your Resident Assistant (RA), who will help you settle into the city, foster a sense of community in the neighborhood, and serve as your point of reference whenever you may need assistance during your stay in John Cabot Housing.

Enjoy your time in Rome, study hard, and always treat yourself and your peers with respect. We look forward to seeing you around the neighborhood.

Sincerely,

The John Cabot University Housing Staff

Resident Rights and Responsibilities

- A living environment that encourages intellectual and personal growth.
- A trained Resident Assistant (RA) to help with the transition to Roman life/college life.
- A clean living environment.
- A well-maintained apartment and a timely response to maintenance requests.
- Personal privacy within the limits of a residential, university setting.
- Study without undue interference, unreasonable noise, and other distractions.

Art. 40 Appeal Process

40.1 In accordance with the JCU Student Code of Conduct, Students have the right to appeal a disciplinary or administrative decision made during the Conduct process. To succeed on appeal, Students must demonstrate:

- a. A lack of fairness in the procedures;
- b. A violation of the process; or
- c. Significant new information, such as a justified reason, that alters the facts of the matter and thus the appropriate outcome.

40.2 The severity of a sanction is not a legitimate ground for an appeal. However, a Student may ask that the sanction be reviewed as part of the appeal process.

40.3 Letters of appeal regarding Housing violations (categories A & B) should be addressed to the Director of Housing while community violations (category C) should be sent to the Dean of Students. Appeals must be received within five (5) business days of the date of the notification of the conduct sanction. The Office of Housing and Residence Life shall decide on any appeals within 15 days and inform the Student of their duly motivated decision in writing. If the Office of Housing and Residence Life decides that the appeal has merit, s/he may:

- a. Modify the recommended sanction by making it more severe, less severe or otherwise different;
- b. Refer the case to a new Administrative Hearing panel; or
- c. Remand the case to the original hearing panel for further review.

40.4 If the Office of Housing and Residence decides that the appeal does not have merit, the sanctions become effective immediately. During the appeal process, sanctions are upheld while awaiting a final decision.

Notes: All Housing Policies and Procedures are subject to reviews and changes.

Changes to either the Student Code of Conduct or Housing Policies and Procedures will be communicated to the entire JCU community.

Supplemental to Housing Contract (COVID-19)

Any person (including students, faculty, and staff) entering and exiting JCU Housing will be scanned with an infrared temperature reader to insure they do not exhibit a temperature higher than 37.5. Students displaying a temperature of 37.5 or higher, must return immediately to their apartment to self-isolate, the Dean of Students and the Housing office will be notified, and the symptomatic individual will be evaluated by a medical professional so as to follow the appropriate protocol and treatment.

Move-in: 14 day Quarantine period

Any Housing students arriving from countries (origin of the departure) where the 14-day quarantine period is mandated by the European Union, student must follow the directives from the university to be quarantined in the residence upon arrival for at least fourteen (14) consecutive days

If Students arrive outside of the designated arrival date, student may have to find alternative lodging for the quarantine period. JCU can assist logistically to find alternative lodging for this period, however, JCU cannot guarantee accommodation for late arrivals as students already in quarantine in the residences cannot be interrupted by late-entry to the assigned units. If Students must stay outside JCU for during the quarantine period, Student must present documentations showing the date of entry to Italy before moving into JCU housing.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE QUARANTINED?

Should students be mandated to quarantine upon arrival, they will have to remain in their assigned apartments for 14 days and prohibited to leave the unit for any reason until JCU notifies the residents or for medical needs.

ALL JCU students entering Italy, who must quarantine for 14 days, can begin their classes via a remote learning platform until they have been cleared by the JCU medical consultant to attend classes in-person. During the semester (after the initial arrival quarantine period) any transition to remote learning will be overseen by the Dean of Students and Dean of Academics, in collaboration with the JCU Doctor On Call, and in compliance with any relevant health and safety guidelines mandated by the Italian Government.

JCU will fully support students in quarantine who are living in the JCU Residences in the following ways:

- JCU will provide private transportation from the airport to the residence upon arrival to Italy on the assigned Move-in dates, Jan. 11, 2021 & Jan. 14, 2021 from 9am to 7pm.
- On-site residence life staff will check-in with students daily to monitor their wellbeing, including body-temperature checks.
- JCU will assist students to receive food and supplies while in quarantine.
- Students will receive 24/7 health care assistance should they need it, including help navigating public health resources, if necessary.
- If our medical consultant recommends that a student be required to self-isolate from a shared apartment due to display of symptoms, we will comply.

Social Distancing

When in a JCU building, masks must be worn at all times.

All persons must maintain a 1-meter distance, including in the courtyard or balcony and must follow the instructions when using elevators, stairs, corridors, or areas with heavy foot-traffic.

Masks must be worn in the common areas in the apartment (i.e. kitchen, bathroom, balcony, living and dining rooms). Students must coordinate with their roommates to avoid large gatherings in common areas.

Gatherings and parties are prohibited under any circumstances. Visitors (external guests, JCU Non-Housing students, JCU Housing students in other units) are NOT allowed to enter other residents' bedrooms or apartments until the Italian authorities and the university approve social gathering.

Students who do not live in the JCU residence will not be permitted entry.

Relocation

Relocation is not permitted after Move-in unless the assigned unit is inaccessible to the resident due to medical or religious reasons.

Each resident must only occupy one bedroom in the assigned apartment unit and stay in the same bedroom for the entire duration of the rental period unless the JCU Housing determines that the relocation is necessary to ensure safety for all residents.

Housing office reserves the rights to relocate any resident with short notices if suspected or confirmed case of illness is reported. All residents must follow directives from the university to ensure safety of the JCU community.

Extra Cleaning and Personal hygiene:

In addition to JCU provided weekly cleaning service in the common area of the Student's apartment (i.e. kitchen, bathroom, balcony, living and dining rooms), each resident is responsible for maintaining clean living quarters by daily cleaning and disinfecting shared furniture or fixtures including door knobs, toilet, sinks, kitchen counters or other 'high-touch surfaces' with JCU provided solutions and wipes.

Must follow safe food-handling and sanitization at all times.

Must follow good hand and respiratory hygiene, including:

- Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Stay home when you are sick.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with your elbow or tissue, then throw the tissue in the trash.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces using a regular household cleaning spray or wipe.
- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, especially after going to the bathroom; before eating; and after blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing.
- If soap and water are not readily available, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol. Do not leave dirty laundry in common areas. Use personal hand and bath towels. Do not share toiletry items.

Self-Isolation

Travel in/out of Italy will depend on Student's justification and the policies of the destination country. If Students intend to repatriate to their home country, please contact the appropriate Embassy and airline(s) to understand travel and re-entry protocols during this time. It is recommended that all persons self-isolate for 14 days after any international travel.

JCU students are discouraged from any unnecessary travel during the Spring 2021 semester, especially any travel outside of Italy. During the semester (after the initial arrival and quarantine period at the start of the semester), students who travel to countries/locations that would require a mandatory quarantine upon re-entry to Rome will be mandated to quarantine outside of JCU housing. Any student who has an urgent travel need must communicate this information to Dean of Students or the Housing office prior to departure.

If any resident becomes ill or suspected of COVID-19, the resident may require to remain in the assigned bedroom or relocate to another unit for 14-day self-isolation or until the medical staff declares safe to return. In addition, the roommates who had close contact with the suspected individual may also be required to self-isolate for 14 days.

Must follow guidance and protocol from the university which may include, but not limited to monitoring temperature regularly, follow guidance from JCU Health and Italian authorities, restricted to ‘stay at home’, allow JCU Housing to provide food and basic items at the door.

No visitors are allowed to enter the JCU residences during the semester.

Violating these measures may incur fines or other consequential action by Student conduct or by the Italian government.

Rental Terms

Must schedule in-person appointments with Housing, Dean of Students, Health and Well-being offices at least 48 hours prior to meetings.

If any extraordinary circumstances arise due to COVID-19 which may result in building closures, the Housing Office reserves the rights to re-assign residents to alternate spaces.

All JCU students acknowledge the potential risk of exposure to COVID-19 in Italy. Furthermore, residents acknowledge that residing in JCU Housing or using JCU facilities does not per se exempt them from risk of exposure to COVID-19. The University is committed to monitor and remain compliant, to the best of our abilities, with the mandates of the Italian authorities as it relates to public health and safety. All JCU students are expected to comply with Italian government issued public health and safety guidelines at all times, as well as rules and expectations for behavior as mandated by JCU, such as face-mask usage, hand-washing, social distancing, and urgent health need reporting procedures. Students who are aware of non-compliant behavior that risks the safety of the JCU community, whether related to COVID-19 or not, should report these concerns to a JCU administrator immediately.

COVID-19 Testing

All JCU students are obliged to comply with University testing expectations, which may include preliminary testing at the start of the semester and random testing throughout the semester, if they intend to engage in-person and onsite with JCU Staff and at JCU campuses/residences. Students may choose to submit their own independently done COVID-19 tests in lieu of undergoing swabbing facilitated at the University. JCU does not cover the cost of testing done outside of the University. Students who refuse to undergo COVID-19 testing or screening during the semester, and therefore do not comply with University health and safety expectations, may be denied access to onsite JCU services, which may include housing, academics, and other extra-curricular events and resources. Testing expectations and schedules will be communicated clearly at the start of the semester. Based on circumstances, including mandates from the Italian government, JCU may change this schedule and amend testing requirements.

By signing this document, I confirm that I have read and accepted all terms and conditions of the Housing Contract, addendum, supplemental contract and the JCU Housing Policies and Regulations.
